From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The month of January is dedicated to devotion to the Most Holy Name of Jesus: let us reverently pray His Holy Name and make reparation to our good Lord for the many times that His Name is spoken with irreverence, ingratitude and hatred!

On January 22, our nation will commemorate the 52nd anniversary of the fateful Roe v. Wade United States Supreme Court decision that permitted the practice of abortion in our country. While we rejoice that this gravely wrong Supreme Court decision was overturned on June 24, 2022, we must continue to pray fervently for conversion of hearts toward love for the gift human life, especially here in Minnesota. The act of abortion is contrary to will and law of God. Our good Lord gives human life to individual persons, beginning at conception, and only He has the authority to determine the timing of death for a human person.

Here in Minnesota, a lawsuit was introduced this past November, 2024, presenting a compelling case that our State has cooperated with abortion providers to coerce women to undergo unwanted abortions. I encourage you to look up this case in our local Federal Court system and be informed. The stories of women coerced to have an abortion, and there being no one to help them resist an unwanted abortion are shocking and heart-rending. Above all, let us pray for the success of this legal action, so that abortion is no longer a part of our state and nation.

The practice of abortion in our country and world puts our society and culture against God and His plan for the human family. In light of this reality, we are called to lend our voice to our unborn brothers and sisters and to all in our world whose lives and God-given dignity are rejected.

Out of the abundance of Mercy, our good Lord's seeks to heal the wounds of abortion, especially those who have been most affected by abortion. Jesus desires that we all work with Him to help hearts receive His love and mercy after abortion. He desires to forgive – which will stop the cycle of misery and death that surrounds abortion.

I include this week a collection of quotes from various Catholic sources about the goodness of human life:

On the Fundamental Right to Life - Pope Benedict XVI:

*God's love does not differentiate between the newly conceived infant still in his or her mother's womb and the child or young person, or the adult and the elderly person. God does not distinguish between them because he sees an impression of his own image and likeness (Gn 1:26) in each one.*¹

*[L]ife is the first good received from God and is fundamental to all others; to guarantee the right to life for all and in an equal manner for all is the duty upon which the future of humanity depends.*²

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

[T]he failure to protect and defend life in its most vulnerable stages renders suspect any claims to the 'rightness' of positions in other matters affecting the poorest and least powerful of the human community. If we understand the human person as the "temple of the Holy Spirit" – the living house of God – then these latter issues fall logically into *place as the crossbeams and walls of that house. All direct attacks on innocent human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, strike at the house's foundation. These directly and immediately violate the human person's most fundamental right – the right to life. Neglect of these issues is the equivalent of building our house on sand. Such attacks cannot help but lull the social conscience in ways ultimately destructive of other human rights.*³

Abortion - Pope Benedict XVI:

*Children truly are the family's greatest treasure and most precious good. Consequently, everyone must be helped to become aware of the intrinsic evil of the crime of abortion. In attacking human life in its very first stages, it is also an aggression against society itself. Politicians and legislators, therefore, as servants of the common good, are duty bound to defend the fundamental right to life, the fruit of God's love.*⁴

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Among important issues involving the dignity of human life with which the Church is concerned, abortion necessarily plays a central role.

*Abortion, the direct killing of an innocent human being, is always gravely immoral (The Gospel of Life, no. 57); its victims are the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. It is imperative that those who are called to serve the least among us give urgent attention and priority to this issue of justice.*⁵

Embryonic Stem Cell Research - U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

We must help those who are suffering, but we may not use a good end to justify an evil means. Moreover, treatments that do not require destroying any human life are at least as (continued on page 3)

The next Holy Hour for Women will be Sunday, January 26, at 6:00pm at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. I will give a talk on: The amazing intervention of Mary, Our Mother of Prompt Succor in the Battle of New Orleans! All women are invited!

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

“To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good. It’s impossible to further the common good without acknowledging and defending the right to life, upon which all the other inalienable rights of individuals are founded and from which they develop.” St. John Paul II
“Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.” Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270

(From Father Kasel - from page 1) promising – they are already healing some conditions, and are far closer to healing other conditions than any approach using embryonic stem cells. The choice is not between science and ethics, but between science that is ethically responsible and science that is not.⁶

Euthanasia & Assisted Suicide - Pope Benedict XVI:

*The freedom to kill is not true freedom, but a tyranny that reduces the human being to slavery.⁷
More and more lonely elderly people exist in big cities, even in situations of serious illness and close to death. In such situations, the pressure of euthanasia is felt, especially when a utilitarian vision of the person creeps in. In this regard, I take this opportunity to reaffirm once again the firm and constant ethical condemnation of every form of direct euthanasia, in accordance with the Church's centuries-old teaching.⁸*

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

Euthanasia and assisted suicide can appear a reasonable and even compassionate solution to the suffering of individuals and families struggling with illness or the dying process. Yet these are not real solutions – they do not solve human problems, but only take the lives of those most in need of unconditional love.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"The sweet Name of Jesus produces in us holy thoughts, fills the soul with noble sentiments, strengthens virtue, begets good works, and nourishes pure affection. All spiritual food leaves the soul dry, if it contain not that penetrating oil, the Name Jesus." St. Bernard of Clairvaux

"If thou art bound down by sickness, if sorrows weary thee, if thou art trembling with fear, invoke the name of Jesus." St. Lawrence Justinian
"Are you troubled? Think but of Jesus - speak but the Name of Jesus, the clouds disperse and peace descends anew from Heaven. Have you fallen into sin? So that you fear death? ...invoke the Name of Jesus and you will soon feel life returning. No obduracy of the soul, no weakness, no coldness of heart can resist this Holy Name - there is no heart which will not soften and open in tears at this Holy Name." St. Bernard of Clairvaux

"The Name of Jesus is the glory of preachers because the shining splendor of that Name causes His Word to be proclaimed and heard. And how do you think such an immense, sudden and dazzling light of faith came into the world, if not because Jesus was preached? Was it not through the brilliance and sweet savor of this Name that God called us into His marvelous Light?" St. Bernardine of Siena

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

March for Life—January 22: Please join thousands of Minnesotans in St. Paul for the March for Life on Wednesday, January 22. While Roe v. Wade has been overturned, Minnesota has since enacted extreme abortion laws, allowing abortion for any reason throughout pregnancy. We also march to celebrate God's precious gift of life. There is a bus going from Rochester to the March. It will leave from Hy-Vee North (500 37th St NW, Rochester) at 8:30am and return around 3:30. The bus will also stop at Kwik Trip, Zumbrota, if there are people interested in riding. Cost is $10. If you would like to attend or for more information, please contact Linda McGuire at 507-259-4035 or email at linda11carlson@hotmail.com.

†ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT†

Universal Prayer for Holiness - attributed to Pope Clement XI (b. 1649 - d. 1721)

I believe, O Lord, but may I believe more firmly; I hope, but may I hope more securely; I love, but may I love more ardently; I sorrow, but may I sorrow more deeply.
 I adore You as my first beginning; I long for You as my last end; I praise You as my constant benefactor; I invoke You as my gracious defender.
 By Your Wisdom direct me, by Your righteousness restrain me, by Your clemency console me, by Your Power protect me.
 I offer You, Lord, my thoughts as toward You, my words, as about You, my deeds, as following You, my trials, as for Your sake.
 I will whatever You Will, I will it because You Will, I will it in the way You Will, I will it so long as You Will.
 I pray, Lord, enlighten my Understanding, inflame my will, cleanse my heart, sanctify my soul.
 May I weep for sins past, repel temptations to come, correct evil leanings, nurture fit virtues.
 Give me, good God, Love for You, hatred for myself, zeal for my neighbor, contempt for the world.
 May I strive to obey those above me, to aid those dependent on me, to have care for my friends, to have forgiveness for my enemies.
 May I conquer sensuality by austerity, avarice by generosity, anger by gentleness, lukewarmness by fervor.
 Render me prudent in planning, steadfast in dangers, patient in adversity, humble in prosperity.
 Make me, O Lord, attentive at prayer, moderate at meals, diligent at work, firm in purpose.
 May I be careful to maintain inward innocence, outward modesty, exemplary behavior, a well-governed life.
 May I be always watchful in subduing nature, fostering Grace, observing Your Law, winning salvation.
 May I learn from you how precarious is the earthly, how great the Divine, how fleeting is time, how lasting the Eternal. Grant that I may prepare for death, fear judgment, flee hell, gain Paradise. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
