From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,
This coming Saturday, February 22, we celebrate the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. This Feast is one that ‘anchors’ us in our Catholic identity. This is an ancient Feast in our Church – known to have been celebrated with much solemnity as early as the 5th century. I offer for your meditation the second reading from the Office of Readings in the Liturgy of the Hours. It is a sermon given by Pope St. Leo the Great (birth: circa 400 – death: November 10, 461).

From a sermon by St. Leo the Great, Pope
(Sermo 4 de natali ipsius, 2-3: PL 54, 149-151)

The Church of Christ rises on the firm foundation of Peter’s faith
“Out of the whole world one man, Peter, is chosen to preside at the calling of all nations, and to be set over all the apostles and all the fathers of the Church. Though there are in God’s people many shepherds, Peter is thus appointed to rule in his own person those whom Christ also rules as the original ruler. Beloved, how great and wonderful is this sharing of his power that God in His goodness has given to this man. Whatever Christ has willed to be shared in common by Peter and the other leaders of the Church, it is only through Peter that He has given to others what He has not refused to bestow on them.

The Lord now asks the Apostles as a whole what men think of Him. As long as they are recounting the uncertainty born of human ignorance, their reply is always the same.

But when He presses the disciples to say what they think themselves, the first to confess his Faith in the Lord is the one who is first in rank among the Apostles.

Peter says: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus replies: Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona, for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but My Father who is in Heaven. You are blessed, He means, because My Father has taught you. You have not been deceived by earthly opinion, but have been enlightened by inspiration from Heaven. It was not flesh and blood that pointed Me out to you, but the One whose only-begotten Son I am.

He continues: And I say to you. In other words, as my Father has revealed to you My Godhead, so I in My turn make known to you your pre-eminence. You are Peter: though I am the inviolable Rock, the cornerstone that makes both one, the foundation apart from which no one can lay any other, yet you also are a Rock, for you are given solidity by My strength, so that which is My very own because of My power is common between us through your participation.

And upon this Rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. On this strong foundation, He says, I will build an everlasting temple. The great height of My Church,

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

which is to penetrate the heavens, shall rise on the firm foundation of this Faith.

The gates of hell shall not silence this confession of Faith; the chains of death shall not bind it. Its words are the words of life. As they lift up to Heaven those who profess them, so they send down to hell those who contradict them.

Blessed Peter is therefore told: To you I will give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you bind on earth is also bound in Heaven. Whatever you lose on earth shall be loosed also in Heaven.

The authority vested in this power passed also to the other apostles, and the institution established by this decree has been continued in all the leaders of the Church. But it is not without good reason that what is bestowed on all is entrusted to one. For Peter received it separately in trust because he is the prototype set before all the rulers of the Church.”

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and our patrons, St. Michael, St. Paul and St. Peter, may the blessing of God, our Father in Heaven, Jesus Christ, our Head and Savior, God the Holy Spirit, our life and peace, bless our Holy Father, Pope Francis, the whole Church and all our parishes!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"As far as abortion is concerned, it's part of the fifth, not the sixth, commandment: 'Thou shalt not kill!' We have to presume this is obvious and always stress that the human person begins in the mother's womb and remains a human person until his or her last breath. The human person must always be respected as a human person." Pope Benedict XV

"God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes." Second Vatican Council, Church in the Modern World, #51

"You are called to stand up for life! To respect and defend the mystery of life always and everywhere, including the lives of unborn babies, giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations. You are called to work and pray against abortion." St. John Paul II, in New York, 1995

"The right to life does not depend, and must not be declared to be contingent, on the pleasure of anyone else, not even a parent or sovereign." Blessed Mother Teresa

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“If someone does not hold fast to this unity of Peter, can he imagine that he still holds the faith? If he [should] desert the chair of Peter upon whom the Church was built, can he still be confident that he is in the Church?” St. Cyprian

“I follow no leader but Christ and join in communion with none but your blessedness [Pope Damasus I], that is, with the Chair of Peter. I know that this is the Rock on which the Church has been built. Whoever eats the Lamb outside this house is profane. Anyone who is not in the ark of Noah will perish when the flood prevails.” St. Jerome

“There are many other things which rightly keep me in the bosom of the Catholic Church. The consent of the people and nations keeps me, her authority keeps me, inaugurated by miracles, nourished in hope, enlarged by love, and established by age. The succession of priests keep me, from the very seat of the Apostle Peter (to whom the Lord after His Resurrection gave charge to feed His sheep) down to the present episcopate [of Pope Siricius].” St. Augustine

“Yes, the Apostle chosen to be His co-worker, merited to share the same Name as Christ. They built the same Building together - Peter does the planting, the Lord gives the increase and it is the Lord, too, Who sends those, who will do the watering (cf 1 Cor 3:6f).” St. Augustine

“[Jesus said:] ‘Simon, My follower, I have made you the foundation of the holy Church. I called you Peter, because you will support all its buildings. You are the inspector of those who will build on earth a Church for Me. If they should wish to build what is false, you, the foundation, will condemn them. You are the head of the fountain from which My teaching flows; you are the Chief of my Disciples’” St. Ephraim the Syrian

Prayer to the Virgin Mary: My Queen, my Mother, I give myself entirely to you, and to show my devotion to you, I consecrate to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self without reserve. As I am your own, my good Mother, guard me and defend me as your property and possession. Amen.

Catholic Services Appeal for 2025:

Giving is Faith in Action!

It is such a great reminder of what the Lord has done and calls us to do. Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good. Each of us has benefited from our ministries.

Catholic Services Appeal is focused on four major ministry areas that touch on important areas of our Catholic life:

Educate in Faith: An essential component of the Church’s ministry is the education of the next generation of disciples, as well as the continuing formation of all its members.

Help Those in Need: The Church is called to make the love of Jesus real and tangible in the world today, especially to the poor, the vulnerable and those on the peripheries.

Faith Formation: At the heart of the Church’s ministry is facilitating for its members an encounter with the person of Jesus Christ. Central to what it means to be Catholic is the development of a friendship with Jesus through prayer and reflection.

Respect for Life: Knowing that every human person has God-given dignity.

Giving is Faith in Action. Give to the Catholic Services Appeal today.
