From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, thank you, thank you to all who made special end-of-year contributions last month! Your thoughtful generosity will be returned by our good Lord!

Second, I wish to thank all those who expressed your Christmas greetings to me and our staff through cards, food and gifts! We feel very blessed! We pray that you and all of your loved ones have a blessed 2025!

Third, remember that this Sunday marks the conclusion of the Christmas Season. The Christmas Season always seems to go by so quickly. Let us remember to give thanks to our good Lord for all the Graces we received during this past Christmas Season!

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of our Lord Jesus in the Jordan River by St. John the Baptist. We hear in the Gospel that God the Father publicly manifested His Love for Jesus. When each of us received the Sacrament of Baptism, we were baptized into the Grace of Jesus Christ – the Grace He won for us through His Passion and death on the Cross. Just as our Lord's Baptism was a sacred moment for Him and for all those who witnessed it, so His Baptism prefigures our personal Baptism in our Lord. Do you know when and where you were baptized? If not, try to find out. It is a good practice to have special remembrance and gratitude for the Grace of Baptism!

Today I share with you a portion of a Scripture commentary on the Gospel of John 1:33, on the Baptism of our Lord, by St. Cyril of Alexandria (b. 370 – d. 444):

“In a plan of surpassing beauty the Creator of the universe decreed the renewal of all things in Christ. In His design for restoring human nature to its original condition, He gave a promise that He would pour out on it the Holy Spirit along with His other gifts, for otherwise our nature could not enter once more into the peaceful and secure possession of those gifts.

He therefore appointed a time for the Holy Spirit to come upon us: this was the time of Christ's coming. He gave this promise when He said: In those days, that is, the days of the Savior, I will pour out a share of my Spirit on all mankind.

When the time came for this great act of unforced generosity, which revealed in our midst the only-begotten Son, clothed with flesh on this earth, a man born of woman, in accordance with Holy Scripture, God the Father gave the Spirit once again. Christ, as the first fruits of our restored nature, was the first to receive the Spirit. John the Baptist bore witness to this when he said: I saw the Spirit coming down from Heaven, and it rested on Him.

Christ “received the Spirit” in so far as He was man, and in so far as man could receive the Spirit. He did so in such a way that, though He is the Son of God the Father, begotten of His substance, even before the Incarnation, indeed before all ages, yet He was not offended at hearing the Father say to Him after He had become man: You are my Son; today I have begotten You. (Psalm 110)

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

WEEKDAY HOLY MASS SCHEDULE

Church of Saint Paul - Tuesday and Thursday Confession 8am & Mass 8:30am, Rosary at 8:10am before Mass

Church of Saint Michael - Wednesday and Friday Confession 8am and Mass 8:30am

The Father says of Christ, who was God, begotten of Him before the ages, that He has been “begotten today,” for the Father is to accept us in Christ as His adopted children. The whole of our nature is present in Christ, in so far as He is man. So the Father can be said to give the Spirit again to the Son, though the Son possesses the Spirit as His own, in order that we may receive the Spirit in Christ. The Son therefore took to Himself the seed of Abraham, as Scripture says, and became like His brothers in all things.

The only-begotten Son received the Spirit, but not for His own advantage, for the Spirit is His, and is given in Him and through Him, as we have already said. He receives it to renew our nature in its entirety and to make it whole again, for in becoming man He took our entire nature to Himself. If we reason correctly, and use also the testimony of Scripture, we can see that Christ did not receive the Spirit for Himself, but rather for us in Him; for it is also through Christ that all gifts come down to us.”

What a great gift is the Sacrament of Baptism! Let us thank our good Lord today for this Grace!

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul, may our Lord grant us His Peace and Joy in this New Year!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

“Nothing we do to defend the human person, no matter how small, is ever unfruitful or forgotten. Our actions touch other lives and move other hearts in ways we can never fully understand in this world.

Don't ever underestimate the beauty and power of the witness you give in your pro-life work.” Archbishop Charles Chaput, Archbishop of Philadelphia, April 8, 2011

“Respect for life and for the dignity of the human person also extends to the rest of creation, which is called to join man in praising God.” St. John Paul II

“All who are genuinely committed to the advancement of women can and must offer a woman or a girl who is pregnant, frightened, and alone a better alternative than the destruction of her own unborn child.” Mary Ann Glendon, 4th World Conference on Women, Beijing, Sept. 5, 1995

“The Gospel of Life is for the whole of human society. To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good.” (#101) quotes from 'Gospel of Life, St. John Paul II'

Union with Jesus

"It seems to me that all is loss since I have known the excelling knowledge of my Lord Jesus Christ. For love of Him I have forfeited everything. I have accounted all else rubbish that I may gain Christ. What I want is to know Him, to share in His sufferings, to become like Him in His death. I pursue my course striving to attain what He has destined for me by taking hold of me. My whole concern is to forget what is behind and to strain forward constantly to what is ahead. I run straight to the goal, to the vocation to which God has called me in Christ Jesus (cf. Phil 3:8-14). That is: I want only to be identified with Him: To me life is Christ (Phil 1:21).

All the intensity of Saint Paul is poured out in these lines. [May we become] more like our adored Master, and even more, to become so one with Him that we may say: I live, no longer I, but He lives in me. And the life that I now live in this body of death, I live by Faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me (Gal 2:20). Let us study this Divine Model. His knowledge, the Apostle tells us, is so excelling. And when He first came into the world, what did He say? You no longer delight in holocausts; so I have assumed a body and I come, O God, to do Your Will (Heb 10:5-7). During the thirty-three years of His life this will became so completely His daily bread that at the moment of handing over His Soul into His Father's Hands, He could say to Him: "All is accomplished, yes, all Your desires, all have been realized, that is why I have glorified You on earth." When Jesus Christ spoke to His Apostles of the food that they did not know, He explained to them that it was to do the Will of Him who sent Me. All He could say: I am never alone. He who sent Me is always with Me because I always do the things that are pleasing to Him.

Let us lovingly eat this bread of the Will of God. If sometimes His Will is more crucifying, we can doubtless say with our adored Master: Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by, but we will add immediately: Yet not as I will, but as You Will. And in strength and serenity, with the Divine Crucified, we will also climb our Calvary singing in the depths of our hearts and raising a hymn of thanksgiving to the Father. For those who march on this way of sorrow are those whom He foreknew and predestined to be conformed to the Image of His Divine Son (Rom 8:29), the One crucified by love!" St. Elizabeth of the Trinity († 1906) was a French Carmelite nun whose writings focused on the indwelling of the Trinity.

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese of Lisieux, Carmelite

O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep Your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unshined their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious . Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the Priesthood. Let Your holy Love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"The Lord was Baptized, not to be cleansed Himself, but to cleanse the waters, so that those waters, cleansed by the flesh of Christ which knew no sin, might have the power of Baptism." St. Ambrose of Milan
"By Baptism we are made flesh of the Crucified." St. Leo the Great
"If, therefore, there is any Grace in the water, it is not from the nature of water but from the Spirit's presence there." St. Basil the Great
"Every baptized person should consider that it is in the womb of the Church where he is transformed from a child of Adam to a child of God." St. Vincent Ferrer
"The soul is regenerated in the sacred waters of Baptism and thus becomes God's child." St. Maximilian Kolbe
"Just as a man cannot live in the flesh unless he is born in the flesh, even so a man cannot have the spiritual life of Grace unless he is born again spiritually. This regeneration is effected by Baptism: 'Unless a man is born again of water and the Holy Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God'" (Jn 3:5) St. Thomas Aquinas
"Baptism is not the work of man but of Christ, and this Sacrament is so holy that it would not be defiled, even if the minister were a murderer." St. Isidore, Doctor of the Church
