From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This month of February is dedicated to increasing our devotion to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, and to imitating their practice of everyday holiness. May the Holy Family help us each day to strive to be Saints in the service of our good Lord Jesus and His Kingdom!

This Sunday, February 9, we celebrate World Marriage Day.

The Sacrament of Matrimony in our good Lord's plan is a beautiful gift to the human family and human society! This special day in honor marriage between one man and one woman is an opportunity for us to show support for married couples and families. I encourage you to grow in knowledge of the great gift of marriage and the place it has in our Heavenly Father's plan.

Furthermore, this month of February is dedicated to increasing our devotion to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. God the Father has given us the Holy Family to show us the way to love His Divine Will and to be a model for us to imitate in all aspects of family life. The love and devotion present in the Holy Family has been a source of inspiration for generations of Christians throughout the world! Let us also grow in our devotion to the Holy Family this month!

Here is some of what our Catechism (#2201-2206) teaches about Christian family life: "The conjugal community is established upon the consent of the spouses. Marriage and the family are ordered to the good of the spouses and to the procreation and education of children. The love of the spouses and the begetting of children create among members of the same family personal relationships and primordial responsibilities.

A man and a woman united in marriage, together with their children, form a family. This institution is prior to any recognition by public authority, which has an obligation to recognize it. It should be considered the normal reference point by which the different forms of family relationship are to be evaluated.

In creating man and woman, God instituted the human family and endowed it with its fundamental constitution. Its members are persons equal in dignity. For the common good of its members and of society, the family necessarily has manifold responsibilities, rights, and duties.

"The Christian family constitutes a specific revelation and realization of ecclesial communion, and for this reason it can and should be called a domestic church." It is a community of faith, hope, and charity; it assumes singular importance in the Church, as is evident in the New Testament.

The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy

Welcome to the Churches of

St. Paul &

St. Michael

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father's work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity. The Christian family has an evangelizing and missionary task.

The relationships within the family bring an affinity of feelings, affections and interests, arising above all from the members' respect for one another. The family is a privileged community called to achieve a "sharing of thought and common deliberation by the spouses as well as their eager cooperation as parents in the children's upbringing."

Through the intercession of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and St. Michael and St. Paul, may our Heavenly Father bless us with the strength of the Holy Spirit to live according to the example of the Holy Family!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

I am the Immaculate Conception - Lourdes

“On 25th March 1858, on the Feast of the Annunciation, during the 16th apparition, Bernadette asked the Lady three times for her name, “Madam, would you be kind as to tell me who you are, please?”

The Lady extended her hands towards the ground then she joined them again at chest height, raised her eyes to Heaven and said with infinite gentleness, “Que soy era Immaculada Concepciou”, (I am the Immaculate Conception).

Bernadette did not understand the meaning of these words. She had to repeat them all the way back to the rectory where she shouted them at the priest, Father Peyramale. Overcome by emotion, he immediately sent her home. He was now sure of the Lady's identity. Indeed, the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception had been promulgated in 1854. It says, unlike all of us, Mary was conceived without sin, and had never sinned. The Apparition was the Virgin Mary!” (<https://www.lourdes-france.org/en>)

Vianney Visit – Thursday, February 13-Saturday, February 15, Saint John Vianney College Seminary, St. Paul. Men in high school or college (age 16-24) who do not have a college degree are invited to get a closer look at college seminary life with this Vianney Visit. There will be testimonies from current seminarians, spiritual conferences with SJV priests, prayer with the community, and a tour of the University of St. Thomas. There may also be the option to meet individually with priests on staff or the rector. Space is limited. Find more information and registration at sjvseminary.org/visit-the-seminary.

Institute of Catholic Culture Lecture Series:

To Will What You Command: St. Augustine on Divine Grace and Human Freedom

The modern view of the human person sees freedom as sovereign acts of the will, evident in mantras like 'my body, my choice' and debates over biological reality. Yet this problem isn't new. In this two-part lecture series, we will explore Augustine's teaching on free will and his debate with Pelagius over grace. Are we free when we choose independently, or only when cooperating with God? Augustine's answers reveal that our souls, our families, and our society need God to be truly free.

Details: Thursdays, February 20 & 27

Pre-Class Discussion: 7:45pm EST, Lecture: 8:00pm EST

Instructor: Chad Pecknold, Ph.D. Registration is required.

Prayer to Our Lady of Lourdes – Feast Day: February 11

O, Mary, the Immaculate Conception, and ever Virgin, Mother of Mercy, Health of the Sick, Refuge of Sinners, Comfortress of the Afflicted, you know my needs, my troubles, and my sufferings. You revealed your heart to St. Bernadette when you said: I am the Immaculate Conception. Through the Grace of your union with the Holy Spirit, I beg of you to look upon me with mercy.

You chose to make the Grotto of Lourdes a privileged sanctuary where you dispense your favors, and where many sufferers have obtained the cure of their infirmities, both spiritual and corporal. Therefore, I lift my heart to you now with unbounded confidence to implore your maternal intercession. My loving Mother, I ask of you to obtain my request: (name your request). In return for hearing my prayer, I will strive to imitate your virtues, especially your Love for God, so that I may one day share your company in Heaven and bless you in eternity. Amen.

You are invited! Bring your family and friends to celebrate Mardi Gras at the Goodhue Lions Building (105 Broadway St, Goodhue, MN) on Sunday, February 23, from noon to 3:00pm. # NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“Love between man and woman cannot be built without sacrifices and self-denial.” Karol Wojtyla (St. John Paul II)

“When a man loves a woman, he has to become worthy of her. The higher her virtue, the more noble her character, the more devoted she is to truth, justice, goodness, the more a man has to aspire to be worthy of her. The history of civilization could actually be written in terms of the level of its women.” Venerable Fulton Sheen

“The Charity which burned in the household at Nazareth should be an inspiration for every family. All the Christian virtues should flourish in the family, unity should thrive, and the example of its virtuous living should shine brightly.” St. John XXIII

“When a husband and wife are united in marriage they no longer seem like something earthly, but rather like the Image of God Himself.” St. John Chrysostom

“Marriage is to help married people sanctify themselves and others. For this reason they receive a special Grace in the Sacrament which Jesus instituted. Those who are called to the married state will, with the Grace of God, find within their state everything they need to be holy.” St. Josemmaria Escriva

“The greater the friendship, the more solid and long-lasting the marriage will be, as we are united not only in flesh but in domestic activity.” St. Thomas Aquinas

“It takes three to make Love, not two: you, your spouse, and God. Without God, people only succeed in bringing out the worst in one another. Lovers who have nothing else to do but love each other soon find there is nothing else. Without a central loyalty life is unfinished.” Venerable Fulton Sheen

The St Pio Knights of Columbus membership meeting will be held Wednesday, February 12, at 7pm at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. All members are encouraged to attend!

Catholic Services Appeal for 2025: Giving is Faith in Action!

It is such a great reminder of what the Lord has done and calls us to do. Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good. Each of us has benefited from our ministries.

Catholic Services Appeal is focused on four major ministry areas that touch on important areas of our Catholic life:

Educate in Faith: An essential component of the Church's ministry is the education of the next generation of disciples, as well as the continuing formation of all its members.

Help Those in Need: The Church is called to make the love of Jesus real and tangible in the world today, especially to the poor, the vulnerable and those on the peripheries.

Faith Formation: At the heart of the Church's ministry is facilitating for its members an encounter with the person of Jesus Christ. Central to what it means to be Catholic is the development of a friendship with Jesus through prayer and reflection.

Respect for Life: Knowing that every human person has God-given dignity.

Giving is Faith in Action. Give to the Catholic Services Appeal today.
