carry out God's Will exactly. A Christian home must be an imitation of the house of Nazareth: a place where there is plenty of room for God so that He can be right at the center of the love that members of the family have for one another.

Is our home like this? Do we dedicate to it the time and attention that it deserves? Is Jesus its center? Do we live only for the others?

These are some questions which we could ask in our prayer today, whilst we contemplate Jesus, Mary and Joseph on the feast that the Church dedicates to them.

The mission of parents. The example of Mary and Joseph: In the family, the parents by word and example are the first heralds of the Faith with regard to their children. (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 11) In the case of the Holy Family this was achieved in a most singular manner. Jesus learned the meaning of the things around Him from His parents.

The Holy Family would have devoutly recited the traditional prayers which were said in every Jewish home. In that house, however, everything that referred particularly to God had a new meaning and content. How keenly and fervently, (continued on page 4)

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

Merry Christmas! Please remember this month of December is dedicated to the Immaculate Conception and the Infancy of Jesus: let us give thanks to our Heavenly Father for the gift of Jesus through Mary! This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I share with you a reflection on the Holy Family. I encourage you to reflect over this message a few times this week:

Feast of the Holy Family - "The Holy Family of Nazareth: Jesus wanted to launch the Redemption of the world from the heart of a family. And when they had performed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. And the Child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon Him. (Luke 2:39-40)

The Messiah wanted to start His redemptive task in the bosom of a simple, ordinary family. The first thing that Jesus sanctified with His presence was a home. Nothing extraordinary happened during those years in Nazareth where Jesus spent the greater part of His life.

Joseph was the head of the family. He was a father according to the law and it was he who supported Jesus and Mary with his work. It is he who received the message as to what name he must give the Child: And you shall call His name Jesus, and heard the words of those who wanted to protect the Child: Rise, take the Child and His Mother and flee to Egypt (Matt. 2:13). Rise, take the Child and His Mother and go to the land of Israel. Do not go to Bethlehem, but to Nazareth (cf. Matt. 2:20-23). It was from Joseph that Jesus learned His trade, which was to be His means of earning a living. Jesus must often have shown His admiration and affection for him.

From Mary, Jesus learned certain turns of phrase, popular expressions full of wisdom which He was later to use in His preaching. He saw how she kept back a little dough from one day to the next, so that it could act as leaven; she added water and mixed it with the new dough, leaving it to rise, well covered with a clean cloth. When His mother mended their clothes, the Child used to watch her. If a garment was torn she would look for a piece of cloth to match. Jesus, with a child's curiosity, would ask her why she did not use a new piece of cloth. Our Lady explained to Him that when new patches are washed they pull on the old cloth and tear it; that was why she had to make a patch out of used cloth... The best clothes, the ones they wore on feast days, were kept in a chest. Mary also took great care to place certain aromatic plants between them so as to prevent moths from damaging them. Years later these occurrences will appear in Jesus' preaching. We never forget this teaching which is fundamental to ordinary life. Mary spent nearly every day of her life like millions of other women who look after their families, bring up their children and take care of the house. Mary sanctifies the ordinary everyday things - what some people wrongly regard as unimportant and insignificant: everyday work, looking after those closest to you, visits to friends and relatives. What a blessed ordinariness, that can be so full of love of God! (J. Escriva, Christ Is Passing By, 148)

Between Joseph and Mary there existed a holy affection, a spirit of service, and a mutual desire for each other's happiness. This is Jesus' family: sacred, holy, exemplary, a model of human virtues, ready to

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

All quotes from St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta:

“If you want to bring happiness to the whole world, go home and love your family.”

“Whatever you do for your family, your children, your husband, your wife, you do for God. All we do, our prayers, our work, our suffering, is for Jesus.”

“It is easy to love the people far away. It is not always easy to love those close to us. Bring love into your home, for this is where our love for each other must start.”

“The child is the beauty of God present in the world, that greatest gift to a family.”

“The way you help heal the world is that you start with your own family.”

“Love begins by taking care of the closest ones - the ones at home.”

Prayer to the Virgin Mary: My Queen, my Mother, I give myself entirely to you, and to show my devotion to you, I consecrate to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self without reserve. As I am your own, my good Mother, guard me and defend me as your property and possession. Amen.

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

V. Do you reject Satan? R. I do.

V. And all his works? R. I do.

V. And all his empty promises? R. I do.

V. Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth? R. I do.

V. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father? R. I do.

V. Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? R. I do.

V. God, the all-powerful Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and forgiven all our sins. May He also keep us faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ for ever and ever. R. Amen.

HOLY FAMILY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, you have given us the model of family life in the Holy Family of Nazareth. Help us, O Loving Father, to make our family another Nazareth where love, peace and joy reign. May it be deeply contemplative, intensely Eucharistic and full of joy. Help us to live united in joy and sorrow through family prayer. Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our family, especially in

His distressing disguise hidden in suffering and rejection. May the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus make our hearts humble like His and help us to carry out our family duties in a holy way. May we love one another as God loves each one of us, more and more each day, and forgive each other's faults as You forgive our sins. Help us, O Loving Father, to accept whatever you give and let go of whatever you take with a big smile.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, cause of our joy, pray for us. St. Joseph, pray for us. Holy Guardian Angels, be always with us, guide and protect us. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

Dear Lord Jesus, Through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we pray that this New Year will bring us closer to You. May we take the time to get to know You. Help us to truly celebrate the gifts You have graciously given us and use them to serve You and spread Your word. May we also see and love you in all the people we meet, so that in turn, they can see You in us. We know that all human relationships take time if they are to become stronger. This is also true of our relationship with You, the Father and the Holy Spirit, which You desire to have grow throughout our lives. In this new year, grant us the grace to realize that every action of ours, no matter how small or great enables us to grow in friendship with You. Help us accept You into our lives, as the Way, that shows we loyal friends to You; as the Truth, to be courageously shared; as the Life, to be lived as a sign to the world; as the Light, to expel the darkness of our world; as the Love, to open the hearts of others; as the Joy, that consoles and strengthens our souls; as the Peace, that the world cannot give and only You can; as the Sacrifice, to be offered out of love for You, our relatives, friends, neighbors and all people. Amen.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) and with what a spirit of recollection, would Jesus have repeated the verses of Sacred Scripture which all Hebrew children had to learn. (cf. Ps. 55:18; Dan. 6:11; Ps. 119) He would often recite these prayers learned from His parents' lips.

When they contemplate these scenes, parents should frequently consider the words of Pope St. Paul VI, recalled for us by Pope St. John Paul II, Do you teach your children the Christian prayers? Do you prepare them, in conjunction with the priests, for the sacraments that they receive when they are young - Confession, Communion and Confirmation? Do you encourage them, when they are sick, to think of Christ suffering, to invoke the aid of the Blessed Virgin and the saints? Do you say the family Rosary together...? Do you pray with your children, with the whole domestic community, at least sometimes? Your example of honesty in thought and action, joined to some common prayer, is a lesson for life and an act of worship of singular value. In this way you bring peace to your homes: Pax huic domui. Remember, it is thus that you build up the Church. (St. John Paul II, Apostolic Exhortation, Familiaris Consortio, 60)

If Christian homes imitate that home formed by the Holy Family of Nazareth, they will be bright and cheerful homes (cf. J. Escriva, Christ Is Passing By, 22) because each member of the family will struggle first of all to get to know God and, with a spirit of sacrifice, will endeavor to make life more pleasant for those around him.

The family is a school of virtues and the ordinary place for us to find God. Husbands and wives will achieve this aim by exercising the virtues of Faith and Hope, facing serenely all the great and small problems which confront any family, and will be persevering in the love and enthusiasm with which they fulfill their duties. They will learn to smile and forget about themselves in order to pay attention to others. Husband and wife will listen to each other and to their children, showing them that they are really loved and understood. They will forget about the unimportant little frictions that selfishness can magnify out of all proportion. They do lovingly all the small acts of service that make up their daily life together.

The aim is this: to sanctify family life, while creating at the same time a true family atmosphere. Many Christian virtues are necessary in order to sanctify each day of one's life. First, the theological virtues and then all the others: prudence, loyalty, sincerity, humility, industriousness, cheerfulness... (ibid., 23)

These virtues will strengthen the unity that the Church teaches us to pray for: You, Who by being born into a family, strengthen family bonds, let there be an increase in unity within the family. (Divine Office, Payers II, Vespers of 1 January)

May the Virgin Mary, who is the Mother of the Church, also be the Mother of the 'Church of the home.' Thanks to her motherly aid, may each Christian family really become a 'little church' in which the mystery of the Church of Christ is mirrored and given new life. May she, the Handmaid of the Lord, be an example of humble and generous acceptance of the Will of God. May she, the Sorrowful Mother at the foot of the Cross, comfort the sufferings and dry the tears of those in distress because of the difficulties of their family life. May Christ the Lord, the Universal King, the King of Families, be present in every Christian home as He was at Cana, bestowing light, joy, serenity and strength. (St. John Paul II, op. cit., 86)

Today we pray to the Holy Family in a very special way for each member of our families and in particular for the one in most need." (From: In Conversation with God, by Francis Fernandez)

Through the intercession of the Holy Family, St. Michael, St. Paul, and all the Holy Angels, may God grant us the grace to be joyful in union with the Hearts of Jesus, Mary and Joseph!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel
